

TIME for City Hall
concert

TIME magazine is sending one of its top European correspondents to Cork to cover an opera concert.

The giant US news-magazine is preparing a major feature on the new sensation of the opera world, young Soviet Baritone Dmitri Hvorostovsky — who is to appear at City Hall on February 4th next.

The man who is said to look like Nureyev and sing like a god will be one of a trio of stars in the first of a series of Great Operatic Voices of Today, being promoted by impresario Barra Ó Tuama.
